The Weather.

FOR KENTUCKY—Generally fair and warmer Saturday.

There are now four announced candidates for congress in the Second District with the Democratic nomination at least a year off. With the opposition to Stanley split into three parts, it requires no prophet to predict the result.

Mme. Helena Modjeska, the famous Polish tragedienne and one of the most noted actresses of the American stage, died in Los Angeles, Thursday, of Bright's disease. She was the wife of Count Bozenta and leaves one son. She was 65 years old.
The body will be embalmed and taken to Poland for burial.

Capt. Frank L. Strange has filed suit enjoining the Democratic Committee of Bowling Green from holding a primary next week without a change of officers. He charges a conspiracy in the interest of his opponent for Mayor, Dr. G. E. Townsend and certain candidates for councilmen writing with him.

Geo. L. Pickett, county attorney of Shelby county, who was so sharply rebuked by Gov. Wilson in issuing a pardon to Gen. Garnett Ripley, has written a card in which he questions the motives of the Governor.
Gov. Wilson should quit giving reasons in pardoning night rider victims. His friends don't ask for reasons and his enemies will not believe him.

The Supreme Court of Tennessee, in a case appealed from Robertson county by the Planters Protective Association decided against H. S.
McMurry, a tobacco prizer who was fined $5,000 worth of Association tobacco burned in his house. Mc-Murry's demurrer was over-ruled, the court holding that McMurry's contract required him to keep the tobacco in his possession fully insured, whereas he had only $7,000 on $12,000 destroyed.

All but two of the successful candidates for the Democratic nominations in Lyon county, are defendants in the petition filed in the Federal Court by former Police Judge Rucker, of Eddyville, charging them with being responsible for the whipping administered to him by night riders. Enoch Prince, candidate for jailer, and Cordie Armstrong, candidate for circuit clerk, are not named by Judge Rucker. It now remains to be seen what the Democrats of Lyon county who are opposed to night riding—and there are many—are going to do about it.

AGED MAN KILLED

Victim of Cyclone That Did Great Damage.

Paducah, Ky., April 7.—Tobacco barns through a strip five miles wide in eastern Calloway county were blown down and their contents strewn over the country by a cyclone which visited that section yesterday afternoon. Isaiah Ballance, 84 years old, was killed, and his sister who is 94 years old, is suffering from the shock. The section visited centers about Cherry, half way between Murray and the Tennessee River.

Mr. Ballance was crossing the open hallway from one side of his double log house to the other when the wind struck. He was swept from the hall into the barnyard, where he was pounded by flying logs from his stable.

Mr. Ballance was a sharp shooter in the Confederate army, and is said to have kept a record of the men he killed and the circumstances. He is said to have killed more than a hundred men.

Nearly all the tobacco barns were full of tobacco and the loss to the farmers is incalculable, as the tobacco was blown miles by the wind and ruined. It is estimated that fully one hundred barns were wrecked.

There were many narrow escapes.
Barbour McElrath, salesman for Covington Bros., of Paducah, was approaching Cherry in a buggy when he observed the cyclone. The driver urged the horse, but it was too late. Mr. McElrath jumped out and ran for shelter, losing his coat. He has not found the garment since, as the wind carried it away. The buggy and horse were bowed over, and the driver was severely hurt.

CURES INDIGESTION.

All Distress From Stomach and Indigestion Vanishes in Five Minutes.

Take your sour stomach—or maybe you call it Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Gastritis or Catarrh of Stomach; it doesn't matter—take your stomach trouble right with you to your Pharmacist and ask him to open a 50-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin and let you eat one 22-grain Triangle and see if within five minutes there is left any trace of your stomach misery.

The correct name for your trouble is Food Fermentation—food souring; the Digestive organs become weak, there is lack of gastric juice; your food is only half digested, and you become affected with loss of appetite, pressure and fullness after eating, vomiting, nausea, heartburn, gripping in bowels, tenderness in the pit of stomach, bad taste in mouth, constipation, pain in limbs, sleeplessness, belching of gas, biliousness, sick headache, nervousness, dizzin-ess and many other similar symptoms.

If your appetite is fickle, and nothing tempts you, or you belch gas or if you feel bloated after eating, or your food lies like a lump of lead on your stomach, you can make up your mind that at the bottom of all this there is but one cause—fermentation of undigested food.

Prove to yourself, after your next meal, that your stomach is as good as any; that there is nothing really wrong. Stop this fermentation and begin eating what you want without fear of discomfort or misery.

Almost instant relief is waiting for you. It is merely a matter of how soon you take a little Diapepsin.

Feeding the Hogs.

Mr. Chas. E. Barker, of Pembroke, related an amusing joke to the Farmers' Institute when it was in session here in February upon Mr.
James Montgomery, with whom he was quartered during the session.
Mr. Barker was awakened the following morning after his arrival about daylight by his host appearing in his room with an old knapsack upon his back which Mr. Montgomery had carried all through the Civil War. His host gave the knapsack a shake and Mr. Barker said he heard something in the sack say, "Goo Goo!" Mr. Barker said he did not know what kind of an animal it was in the knapsack but Mr. Montgomery said it had white whiskers on it and was a relic of the late war. His host filled a goblet with the relic and assured Mr. Barker that it was one of the best cramp exterminators extant. Mr. Barker said he quenched his thirst with the life elixir or cramp exterminator and felt so good that he thought he was at home and made the remark, "I believe I will go out and feed the hogs." Mrs. Montgomery replied to the remark by saying: "Never mind, Mr. Barker, I have been feeding the hogs regular at daylight every morning since I married Mr. Montgomery some thirty years ago."

Appoints Delegates

Frankfort, Ky., April 7.—Governor Wilson today commissioned Lieutenant Governor W. H. Cox, of Maysville; R. M. Salmon, of Hopkins county, and the Rev. George C.
Abbott, of Hopkinsville, as delegates to the second National Peace Congress, to be held in Chicago, May 3, 4 and 5. He will name seven other delegates.

Amusements

The Ferris Comedians have been engaged to play at the Holland Opera House for the week commencing April 12. The company is stronger than ever, and is considered the strongest of its kind on the road.

They have played for the past 14 years and are well up in all of their plays, among which the special ones are, "The Lion and the Lambs," "A Daughter of the Enemy," "A Man of Mystery," "At Piney Ridge," "His Lord and Master," "Why Women Sin," and many others.

The specialties are of the very best, and between each and every act. The specialties are worked by Miss Kates, who is well known as a very fine vaudeville actress, also Mr.
Grant, who is really as funny as they grow to be, and others who are just as good.

Mr. Graham Earl, who is leading man, is a well known actor and has quite a large reputation of being one of the finest of his kind, assisted by Miss Katherine Wayne, who is also well known.

The opening play will be "A Kentucky Romance," which is a very beautiful melodrama with a plot of interest running all the way through it. With scenery to match the play everything is realistic as possible.
Ladies free Monday under usual conditions. Prices 10, 20 and 30 cents.
Motto—"Not a Dull Moment."

A Return Engagement.

Wayne's Musical Comedy Company will play a return engagement at Holland's Opera House two nights, April 21 and 22. When this company was here in February it played to packed houses and it is safe to predict that on the occasion of their return similar audiences will greet them.

Charles Crossin, 14 years old, wearing knee trousers, and Miss Minnie Corley, 30 years old, were married at Maben, Miss. The boy's parents, hearing of the marriage, separated the couple within an hour and refused to allow the boy to return to his wife. The bride declares if they are not allowed to live together she will kill herself.

TOO MUCH TOBACCO

For Independent Men--2,000 Hogsheads Still On Hand.

Cincinnati, O., April 7.—Two thousand hogsheads of tobacco, valued at $400,000 are causing trouble for the Independent Tobacco Manufacturers association, which is holding a secret meeting here today. This amount of tobacco has not been taken out of the amount subscribed for by the independent manufacturers last fall, it is claimed.

It is declared that many of the smaller independents have not yet taken the tobacco allotted to them, and that the Equity society will look to the larger concerns that agreed to apportion the tobacco, to see that all contracts are fulfilled. Some of the large independents have all the tobacco they can use, however. The meeting here is expected to iron out this tangle.

President Hugh Campbell of the Independent Manufacturers' association, admits that another question to be decided is the controversy with the Equity society over alleged weight shortage.

TOOK MONEY

Is Charge on Which Former Penitentiary Clerk is Convicted at Frankfort.

Frankfort, Ky., April 8.—M. W.
Rowland, of this city, formerly a clerk at the penitentiary, was convicted of taking money belonging to the convicts in the prison, amounting to about $1,800, and sent to the penitentiary for one year.

Rowland did not introduce any testimony, although he pleaded not guilty. Prison Commissioner Eli Brown and William Grayot, the clerk of the Prison Board, testified for the Commonwealth, and as a result of this testimony it was brought out that the peculations of Rowland were exposed because Gov. Cox pardoned a number of crippled convicts in one bunch.

Practically all of these convicts had money in the fund, and it had been used by Rowland, so that he did not have the money to pay them when they were released. A bonding company paid Rowland's pecu-lations.

PROSPECTUS OUT.

For Louisville's Great May Festival--Send for One.

The prospectus for the May Music Festival, which will be held at the First Regiment Armory in Louisville May 6, 7 and 8, has been received here. It is one of the handsomest pieces of printing that can be imagined, and is printed on India tinted paper with Egyptian ink. It gives full information concerning the festival, and is handsomely illustrated with cuts of the famous artists who are to take part.

The programs for the festival are announced for the first time. There are to be five performances, the evenings of Thursday, Friday and Saturday, May 6, 7 and 8, and the afternoons of Friday and Saturday having been set apart for the concerts. The first night will be called "Italian Opera Night," and the singing of "Aida," Verdi's masterpiece, will feature it. Friday afternoon will have a Symphony Concert, the chief feature of which will be the performance of the Elgar Symphony in E flat. Next comes Popular Night, when two big choral works, including the "Pied Piper of Hamelin" and "The Death of Minnehaha" will be sung. Saturday afternoon the Children's Chorus of 500 will have the center of the stage, and Farewell Night will be given over to Mrs. Olive Fremstad, the wonderful soprano of the Metropolitan Opera Company.

Copies of the prospectus may be had on application to Secretary Andrew Broadbudd, Columbia building, Louisville, Ky.

UP TO ALDRICH

The Tobacco Tax Repeal Bill
Again Passes The House.

Washington, D. C., April 8.—The ways and means committee today adopted an amendment to the tariff bill removing the 6 per cent. tax on leaf tobacco, made by Representative Calderhead.

This means that it will now be considered by the Senate, which has previously been prevented by Aldrich.

WORTH MOUNTAINS OF GOLD

During Change of Life, says Mrs. Chas. Barclay

Graniteville, Vt.—"I was passing through the Change of Life and suffered from nervousness and other annoying symptoms, and I can truly say that Lydia E. Pinkham's
Vegetable Compound has proved worth mountains of gold to me, as it restored my health and strength. I never forget to tell my friends what
Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me during this trying period. Complete restoration to health means so much to me that for the sake of other suffering women I am willing to make my trouble public so you may publish this letter."—MRS. CHAS. BARCLAY, R. F. D., Graniteville, Vt.

No other medicine for woman's ills has received such wide-spread and unqualified endorsement. No other medicine we know of has such a record of cures of female ills as has Lydia E.
Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

For more than 30 years it has been curing female complaints such as inflammation, ulceration, local weaknesses, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, indigestion and nervous prostration, and it is unequalled for carrying women safely through the period of change of life.
It costs but little to try Lydia E.
Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and, as Mrs. Barclay says, it is "worth mountains of gold" to suffering women.

Jail Sentence Remitted.

or Willson remitted the jail sentences of ten days against Henry Delaney and Quinn Moore, two Union county men, who were charged with manslaughter. Moore was acquitted and Delaney dismissed upon motion of the Commonwealth's Attorney. They were then charged with carrying concealed weapons and fined $50 and given ten days in jail each. They paid the fine.

Mayor Chas. Miller, of Lakeview, Ohio, elected on a "dry" ticket, has been arrested charged with running a blind tiger.
